OFFICIALS VS. LAWYERS

Is the Title of a Foot Ball Tragedy that May or May not be Enacted on the Island Gridiron—A Great Array of Stars (7).

Just imagine for an instant, gentle reader, seeing John B. Wilson and Charley Dannenberg coming together in a center rush on the football field. And how would "Jenna" K. Hall, and "Yonny" Arbena strike you as quarter-backs? And what of "Tom" Moffat tackling "Willie" Arnett good and hard half a dozen yards from goal. Or think of Godfrey Schul sitting down on "Bob" Adleman in a hot scrimmage. All these and other stars of as great magnitude may be seen if a proposed game between the Official and Lawyer teams, which is now being concocted in the northwest corner of the public building, comes off. The line up, as the promoters have it, is like this:

OFFICIALS. Position. LAWYERS.
C. Dannenberg, Centre. John B. Wilson, C. H. Henning, Left End. C. J. Schuck, A. L. White, Right Tackle. F. W. Nesbitt, W. McCornick, Left Guard. S. C. Boyer, J. Schuch, Right End. W. C. Meyer, J. H. Richards, Right Tackle. M. Scholl, T. C. Moffat, Right Guard. Will Arnett, J. K. Hall, Quarter. John Arbena, W. J. Beck, Right Half. L. Friedman, Godfrey Schul, Full Back. R. M. Adleman, Substitutes. Officials. H. C. Richards, Frank Thompson, Alex. Forney, Tom O'Brien. Lawyers, Frank Cox, W. P. Robinson, Judge L. S. Jordan, J. B. Handlan.

Bowlers' Night.

To-night at the Carroll club the bowlers will be entertained in a royal manner by the management. This is done preparatory to the opening of the winter tournament, which opens next week. The alleys will be given over to them and everything will be at their disposal. The prizes will also be distributed to the successful contestants. A committee of young ladies will be on hand to appease the bowlers' hunger.

L. A. W. CAPTURES GERMANY.

Foreign Alliances Extended to the German Organization.
The co-operative arrangements recently made between the League of American Wheelmen and the Cyclist Touring Club of England are about to be supplemented by a similar agreement between the L. A. W. and the Deutscher Radfahrer Bund, the national cycling organization of Germany. The agreement with the English organization is recognized by cyclists throughout this country as one of the strongest accompaniments of the league, and the present administration of the organization is receiving the merited approval of its constituents in accomplishing an alliance with which it alone is to be credited.

If the alliance with the German Association is completed, and there is every indication it will be, members of the L. A. W. who make tours of Germany in the future will be entitled to all the privileges and accommodations enjoyed by members of the Bund. This will be no small advantage when it is considered that the tourist will have at his disposal the hotel and repair shop discounts, road maps, officials who will give desired information, and such other privileges as are common to all of the great national cycling organizations.

Immediately upon concluding the alliance with the C. T. C., President Keenan, of the L. A. W., began his negotiations with the D. R. B., and the prospects for an ultimate alliance are now so nearly realized they may be given publicity. With the two foremost organizations of Europe at their disposal, American tourists will have every accommodation that it is possible to give them.

The importance of these alliances cannot be overrated. They give Americans everything they could hope for in European travel, and membership in the L. A. W. is all that is necessary to enjoy them. Several times efforts have been made to complete similar arrangements, but in each case the negotiations came to naught. Upon assuming the duties of his office, President Keenan determined to complete such alliances if it were possible to do so, and with that end in view he made a trip to Europe, spending nearly three months among the cycling officials of the Old World. There is no one who will detract from the credit due him for his successful work in making alliances which practically extend the advantages of L. A. W. membership to all parts of Europe.

The full benefit of these alliances will be realized next year, when the Paris Exposition will be the primary cause of drawing thousands of tourists to various parts of Europe. With the inducements offered under these alliances to American tourists to make trips afoot through the picturesque parts of Europe, it is expected that at least 10,000 members of the L. A. W. will be made to value their membership in the organization at this alone.

Coming Boxing Bouts.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Billy Smith and Charley McKeever, of Philadelphia, have signed articles for a twenty-five-round bout at catch weights November 5 at the Lenox Athletic club. George Dixon and Eddie Lenny, of Philadelphia, will go twenty-five rounds in the same club November 16.

Gus Ruhlín and Jim Jeffords signed articles to box twenty-five rounds before the Lenox club, but it was announced to-day that the contest had been transferred to the Broadway Athletic club, the date to be fixed later.

For next Saturday the Greenwood Athletic club announces a twenty-five-round bout between Tommy West, of this city, and Charlie Stevenson, of Philadelphia.

Joe Chynski and Australian Jimmy Ryan will fight twenty-five rounds at catch weights at the Broadway Athletic club next Friday night.

Flinnegan in Town.

John Flinnegan, the Pittsburgh heavy weight, has arrived in town and has begun training at Letakus' place, South Side, for his bout on November 6 at the Metropolitan club, with Jack Bonner, of Philadelphia. Flinnegan weighs 200 pounds and he never loses a fight. He will take off about thirty pounds, making him enter the ring at 170 pounds.

A Wheeling Man Selected.

J. C. Williams, of the Wheeling Tent and Awning Company, a recognized authority on pigeons, has been appointed judge in the pigeon department of the second annual exhibition by the Belmont County Pigeon Association, which occurs at St. Clairsville in December. The exhibition will consist of exhibition of pigeons, poultry and pet stock.

Paper, Miss Ruth Howell, Oliveville.

Paper, "The Outcome," Superintendent James Duncan, Bridgeport.

General discussion.

The special session of the Elks last night after the regular order of business was one of those interesting occasions that increase interest in the meetings and consequently swell the attendance. It was a stag affair and the boys had a great time.

The Young Men's club representatives fought the two outsiders who tackled them in a series of forty games of checkers how little they knew of the real game by winning about three-fourths of them. It takes a club man for checkers or chess.

Bellaire folks secured about all the officers of the Christian Endeavor union at the convention at Pleasant Grove. R. L. Hopkins is president, J. Wells vice president, Fred O. Wise secretary, and Miss Emma Bloss superintendent of Junior work.

Rev. R. S. Coffey has received a call to become the pastor of the Barnesville Presbyterian church. This is a surprise to his congregation here, where he is growing in favor all the time, and they will regret to have him accept the new call.

Several St. Clairsville people came down yesterday afternoon to see the show, and the Baltimore & Ohio and narrow-gauge railroads brought in a crowd of people. It was like a circus day here.

Hon. E. B. Armstrong, Belmont's sturdy representative, who is a candidate for re-election to the legislature, was in the city yesterday and went with the crowd to the show in the afternoon.

The meeting of the home missionary society of St. Clairsville presbytery will be held in the Second Presbyterian church, beginning this evening and continuing to-morrow.

Auditor Aldridge is home from Richmond, Ind., where he took Bud Taylor and left him in the care of his brother, a physician there. Mrs. Taylor is also with her husband.

The skeleton of a human being was unearthed by workmen sinking a shaft for the Novelty Stamping Company. It was nearly ten feet under ground.

Michael Conley and Martin O'Neill will be taken in charge by Constable Bruhnert on a charge of interfering with R. & O. trains.

Fleet Walker, the mail agent sent to jail for a year on a charge of tampering with registered mail, has been released from custody.

Word was received from Senator Fornaker yesterday that he cannot possibly come to Belmont county this campaign.

A. W. Beatty, of the auditor's office, was down yesterday on business.

ORDER a case of Cook's Imperial Champagne Extra Dry. Tell your friends it is the best. Then say, "I told you so."

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sent to me at all other drug medicines combined. J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by druggist.

MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, occurred the funeral of the late Joseph B. Montgomery, from his late residence on Broadway. The funeral was the most largely attended of any held in this city for several years, many being present from all over the county to pay their last respects to a man that was honored and respected by all. Rev. J. T. Morton, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of this city, assisted by Rev. C. E. Clark, of Thomson M. E. church, Wheeling, conducted the services and spoke prettily of the Christian character and excellent traits of the deceased. A quartette, composed of Miss Laura Hopkins, Mrs. Howard Hopkins, George and Jesse Hopkins, rendered several appropriate selections. Belmont City Lodge No. 211, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in body. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, and were as follows: Heart, anchor and pillow of roses, from relatives; sheaf of wheat, from Hopkins family; sickle of white roses, from Stone & Thomas; pillow, white and pink roses, from residents of Camp Rest; wreath of white roses, People's Savings Bank; white chrysanthemums, M. E. Cole; carnations, Miss Betta White; sheaf of white roses, Miss Katherine Stimmel, of Columbus; sickle of white roses, Joseph Speldel & Company, and many other cut flowers from friends. The interment was at Mt. Olivet.

DIPHTHERIA AT YORKVILLE.

Nearly all the towns along the river front have been undergoing a siege of the dreaded disease, diphtheria, but until yesterday the town of Yorkville, a few miles above this city, had been fortunate enough to escape the same. Yesterday three serious cases were reported in that town. In what is known as Yorkville row, the three children having the disease were playing with numerous others on Tuesday, but the disease being of so serious a nature, they were required to take their beds yesterday, consequently great fear of an epidemic is entertained. Dr. W. D. Hoke, of Portland, was called in and announced the condition of each of the three children as being very serious. Strict quarantine rules are in force.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS.

The second meeting of the third season of the Woman's Club was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. R. Shreve, on "The Heights." The meeting was largely attended and as usual very interesting and instructive. An excellent literary programme including readings and essays was rendered by members of this sterling organization. The club meets the first and third Wednesdays in each month.

ONE CASE REMAINS.

Health Officer Ong stated yesterday that there was no new case of diphtheria in the Saunders family, on Broadway, had been reported but to the contrary the one case that has been in the family has been pronounced well cured and the case dismissed and the house fumigated yesterday, by the health officer. There now remains but one case of the disease in Martin's Ferry and that is in the Jamison family, on Park street. Health Officer Ong stated that unless some new cases developed in the next few days, all rooms in the South school would start Monday morning.

A DELICATE OPERATION.

Edward Mansburger underwent a very delicate and serious operation at his residence on Hickory street, yesterday morning. For the past eight years Mr. Mansburger has been suffering from a cancer on his neck, and for the past two months it has been very painful. Several weeks ago he consulted the best medical advice of this vicinity and was informed that an operation would be necessary, and yesterday morning Dr. Rau, of Wheeling, assisted by Drs. Blackford, Wilson, Ong and West, performed the operation, which was a very delicate one, being very close to the jugular vein. The operation was successful and last evening Mr. Mansburger was resting as easily as could be expected.

MARTIN'S FERRY BRIEFS.

R. B. Reineck, travelling salesman for the Seneca glass works, of Morgantown, W. Va., returned yesterday from an extended trip through the west. Mr. Reineck says he never saw sales as large or business as bright as it has been on his late trip. He pronounces everything on the boom in the "wild and woolly" west.

A letter received from E. G. Smith, sergeant of Company L, Seventeenth United States Infantry, located at Luzon, Philippine Islands, by his parents a few days ago, stated that he had been ill for about a month with malarial fever, but was improved at the time of writing.

The foundation for the power house of the Steubenville, Mingo and Ohio Valley Traction Company was completed Tuesday, and the bricklayers commenced their work yesterday morning.

Ed. Hell, Philip Kolb, Ebenezer Worley, Sherman Stahl, Charles Stahl and Andrew Worley returned yesterday with 280 squirrels from a three days' hunt near Andonia, Ohio.

Mrs. William McWilliams will be home to-morrow from a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lincoln Horn, at Uhrichsville.

A roll was broken on mill No. 5, at the Aetna-Standard, yesterday morning. This is the second roll broken on that mill in two days.

Charles Carpenter lost his valuable driving horse yesterday morning. Physicians pronounced the cause of death due to dyspepsia.

Superintendent Stewart announced last evening that Miss Cleod Anthony's room at the South school would start this morning.

The Laughlin tin house finished cooling what plates were on hands yesterday, and is now off indefinitely.

Mrs. A. W. Diven goes to Pittsburgh to-day to visit relatives for a few days and attend the exposition.

Van Cassimer, of Mt. Etherium, Ohio, is the guest of his uncle, John Pennington, on Fifth street.

Miss Anna Boyd returned yesterday, from a two weeks' visit with Miss Alice Bailey, at Candor, Pa.

Warren Moore was assessed $1 and costs by Mayor Shipman yesterday, on a plain drunk charge.

Thompson Thomas, of Philadelphia, a former resident of this city, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. R. B. Reineck will be home to-day from a month's visit with relatives at Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. Stern, of Morristown, will be here to-day to accept a position at Hoke's pharmacy.

W. H. Helffenbine and John Wilson went to Adena yesterday, to spend a few days hunting.

J. E. Reynolds and R. B. Reineck were in Tiltonville yesterday on business.

Joseph Harrison, of Barnesville, was a business caller in this city yesterday.

Miss Alice Howison, of Steubenville, is visiting friends here for a few days.

Harrison Mitchell, of Adrian, is visiting relatives in the First ward.

taken at night will make you feel right, act right and look right. They cure Constipation.

10 cents and 25 cents, at all drug stores.

MOUNDSVILLE BUREAU.

Yesterday's News From Marshall County's Chief City.

Policeman Charles Stillwell arrested two tramps in a shanty boat Tuesday night and lodged them in jail until morning, when they were brought before Mayor Parkinson, who fined them each $5 and costs. They gave their names as Wallace Huff and Charles Wilson. The former had $34 on his person when captured. There are good reasons for believing they contemplated a raid on one or two houses during the night, but our policeman was too quick for them.

Lieutenant C. W. Conner, late of Company M, First West Virginia Volunteers, will organize a camp of "Service men of the Spanish war" here, Saturday evening at the court house. All the soldier boys should be present and join this organization. The camp will be organized on the order of the G. A. R. camps, and those joining will be connected with an organization which is expected to be of great benefit to them.

Circuit court was in session only a short time yesterday morning. The two cases set for trial were soon settled and court adjourned until Saturday morning. In the case of Belmont Manufacturing Company vs. J. M. Houston, appeal from justice's court, the jury brought in a verdict for $1 for the defendant. Each side pays its own costs.

Routine business was attended to by the county court yesterday. H. W. Slute was appointed justice of the peace for Webster district, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John Dowler. Bond, $2,000, L. L. Phillips and J. T. Scott, surety.

Frank Delmont and William Daily, arrested at Benwood, and indicted for carrying concealed weapons, were fined $25 each and sentenced to one day in jail. They will probably not be able to give the fines and will have to remain in jail.

The Woman's Relief Corps, G. A. R., will give an oyster supper in the Odd Fellows' hall this evening. This will be an excellent place to get a fine oyster stew.

Quite a large delegation of Webster district citizens was in attendance at county court yesterday, in the interest of improvements in the district.

Mrs. W. M. Riggs and Miss Carrie Cockayne will give a luncheon party at Valley Farm this afternoon, to their lady friends.

Miss Grove and Miss Barger, of Greene county, Pa., are the guests of R. W. D. Barger and family, on Eighth street.

James A. Sigatose and mother left yesterday morning for Chicago, to visit relatives.

WELLSBURG.

Doings of People in the Brooke County Metropolis.

The Fair will case was given to the jury at noon yesterday and up to the time of adjournment of court no verdict had been reached. James Banks, the colored miner from the Blanche coal mines, at Collier, was placed on trial for assaulting E. D. Snyder, a white man, with intent to kill. A number of witnesses from Collier and Steubenville are here in this case.

The corner stone of the new school building will be laid on Thursday, October 26. Wellsburg Lodge No. 2, A. F. & A. M., will have charge of the ceremonies, assisted by lodges from Wheeling, Steubenville, West Liberty, Bethany, and other points. The use of the city hall has been granted to the Masons for the entertainment of their visiting brethren.

Deputy Sheriff James McCleary was slightly injured Tuesday evening, by being thrown from a horse, on the Beech Bottom road, the animal falling on him and bruising him so as to disable him for probably several days.

A. G. Neville and Alexander Gleichert were appointed by the circuit court trustees of the Union church, at Lazearville, to take the place of Archibald Rae, removed, and James Dalsell, deceased.

The remains of Mrs. Mary E. Barnes, who committed suicide at Steubenville, Monday night, were brought here yesterday, and interred in Brooke cemetery. The woman was well connected here.

Twenty additional jurors were drawn in open court on Tuesday, the regular panel having been exhausted before a sufficient number were secured in the Banks felony cases.

Samuel T. Bane, of this county, and Miss Julia Delters, of Elm Grove, were married on Tuesday, October 17.

The J. W. Carnier Stock Company is playing to good houses at Barth's opera house this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McElroy, of Sistersville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Scott.

Cordell E. Meyer, son of John L. Meyer, has enlisted in the regular army.

T. W. Carmichael left yesterday for Winnipeg, Manitoba, on business.

Mrs. Hugh Barth will erect a dwelling on Ohio street.

BRIDGEPORT HAPPENINGS.

Events of a Day in the Town at the End of the Bridge.

Work will be commenced this morning paving the north side of Pike street from the coal road to the new wall, where at the latter place they will be compelled to abandon the work on this street until the curb is set. They will also commence the first of the week paving Whitley street, and if a sufficient number of bricks arrive in time paving will also be commenced on Lee street, the excavation for which is about completed. As soon as the paving on Pike street is finished, they will turn the force of men at work in the extension of Lincoln avenue through the Koehn property, on the west side of the street car tracks.

"The Danger Signal," produced at the opera house last evening, was witnessed by a fair-sized house, and the play gave general satisfaction. The company carried a large amount of special scenery, a portion of which they could not use last evening, owing to the smallness of the stage.
